PRAYER OF RENEWAL

Rexann Hosafros, Liturgist

Eternal and merciful God, we remember how you, through Jesus Christ, died on the Cross and were raised to a new life for us, your children. We humbly approach your throne of grace, seeking the forgiveness of all that separates us from you. As we prepare to break the bread and drink from the cup, let your Spirit purify our hearts and our minds and grant us all your wholeness and spiritual healing. We open our mouths and receive the bread and the cup of life. We open our hearts and receive your forgiveness. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.

GOOD NEWS OF FORGIVENESS

In Jesus Christ, we are set free and our sins are forgiven!

Our thanks be to God! (Please rise and let us sing)

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Include a personal note, and a check for $7.00 payable to Samaritan’s Purse for shipping costs. Shoeboxes are due at Chapel by Sunday, November 13, 2016.

Bring Joy to the Ends of the Earth

Elena’s Story

My home was a part of the former Soviet Union. My sister and I were often neglected by our parents, and were left to fend for ourselves, without food. Until we were placed in an orphanage when I was 8 years old, we did not attend school. We did not know our birth dates or how old we were. I would always read fairy tales to get away from reality and dreamed of being Cinderella because she went from being a nobody to being a princess.

I had gotten my hopes up when my sister and I were being considered for adoption, but at the last minute the woman backed out. I felt undeserving because I thought I was a nobody. At my lowest point of feeling worthless, God brought me a shoebox! It was suitable for a princess. It was pink and one of my gifts was a pink pin with a dangling heart. I also received a teddy bear. What had the greatest impact was “The Greatest Gift” booklet that told about the love of Jesus. I had never heard about that kind of love before.

I began to pray for a family and God provided us with a family when I was 12. We were told that we were loved. We had never heard that before. A year after we were adopted, I became a Christian. Our parents told us that “God loves you, we love you, and there is nothing you can do to change that”.

Much later while studying at Ozark Christian College, I helped organize shoebox packing parties so other children would learn of God’s love for them. I look forward to continuing to share His love with orphans around the world.

The Grapevine Window at Chapel

The grape vine is a symbol of the Sacrament of Holy Communion, as wine was the beverage used by Christ when He instituted the Lord’s Supper. It is also the symbol of our growth in Christ. Jesus said in John 15:5, “I am the vine, you are the branches. Apart from me, you can do nothing.” The Grape Vine Window was given to Chapel by the Sea in memory of Mrs. Lora Root.
